

THAILAND INTERNATIONAL FETP NEW BATCH AND JUNE COURSE

The Joint Training Course on Surveillance and Rapid Response for Public Health Emergency under “One Health” was organized by the Thailand FETP at Bureau of Epidemiology, Ministry of Public Health on 3-28 June 2013. Total 33 persons from 11 countries participated in the training course. Participants included physicians, public health officers, veterinarians and wildlife experts from Bhutan, Cambodia, China, Indonesia, Lao PDR, Malaysia, Micronesia, Myanmar, Solomon Islands, Thailand and Vietnam. During the training course, the principles of epidemiology, biostatistics and application of epidemiological methods for solving the health problems were instructed and practiced under the guidance of lecturers from Ministry of Public Health, Ministry of Agriculture and Cooperatives, Zoological Park Organization, US CDC, FAO, and agricultural, research and medical universities.

